Announcements.

FOR CONSTABLE.

W. J. HUNT is a candidate for Constable of Arcadia Township, subject to the voters of said township, at the November election.

M. L. CLAYBAUGH is a candidate for Constable of Arcadia Township subject to the action of the voters of said township, at the November election.

JOHN I. MARSHALL is a candidate for Constable of Arcadia Township, subject to the action of the voters of said township, at the November election.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Dr. Strong is located for the present at the American Hotel.

Do not fail to see Ogarita at Academy of Music Monday night, in "La Belle Marie." Ladies free.

Reserved seats on sale at usual place for C. D. Field's Artistic Company, at Academy of Music all next week.

Be sure and go to the Academy of Music next Monday night and hear the latest songs, and see latest dances.

County Court is in session this week—all the judges being present. The proceedings in full will be published next week.

"Bob" Blank is the most faithful and careful carrier ever employed in this town to deliver the mails to and bring them from the trains. He gives no cause for complaint.

The railroad company still continues its reduction of fares, and in addition thereto it is rumored that the wages of those remaining will be abridged in the near future.

Miss Sadie Spangb, late of St. Louis, has opened a dress making establishment and will make fine woolen dresses for $2.50 and $3.50, for one month. One door north of the jewelry store.

All week, commencing September 14, at Academy of Music, Senora Ogarita, supported by C. D. Field's Artistic Co. Different plays every night, at popular prices—10, 20 and 30 cts.

Once again—we cannot and will not publish anonymous communications. The editor must be given the name of every correspondent—not for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

Mr. Edgar has removed his law office into the new bank building. His quarters are comfortable and pleasant, and the REGISTER wishes him a long-continued and successful possession thereof.

The Ironton public schools opened Monday, with Prof. F. M. Vance in charge. Miss Alice Gay presides over the intermediate department, and Miss Frances Markham the primary. The attendance is good.

Thanks to our friend, S. W. Andrews, for that Free Silver money-purse. After the inauguration of Bryan we will fill it with the dollars of the daddies, and the note of their jingle shall be heard from afar.

C. D. Field's Company supporting Senora Ogarita, the Mexican-Indian Actress, at Academy of Music week of September 14th. This company comes highly recommended and will doubtless play to packed houses.

Last Friday night, during the storm, lightning struck a house across the street from Herman Davis', on Zion's Hill. It first hit a wire clothesline attached to the building. No one was in the house at the time, and no damage was done.

A welcome rain drenched the Valley last Friday evening. It was accompanied by heavy thunder, vivid lightning, and high winds. Little damage was done to property and no one was injured, but the whole community was pretty well shaken up.

A ball was given at the Academy of Music on Tuesday evening of this week by the soldiers of the Rifle Range. It was largely attended, and everybody and his girl had an enjoyable time. Dancing continued until the early morning hours, when all departed for their several homes.

The Iron County Bank opened its doors for business last Monday morning, and is now in full operation. The REGISTER hopes and believes it will have a long and prosperous career. The stockholders' names are a guarantee of its solidity and integrity. In this connection we direct the attention of the reader to an advertisement in this paper.

On the tenth of this month the soldiers will leave the Valley and take up their abode at Jefferson Barracks, and will probably be seen in our midst no more until next season. They have been as quiet and orderly as other citizens. Their blue jackets will be missed upon our streets, from our churches, and—well, our saloons will be a little more lonesome than ordinary. Captain Chase, the commander of the last detachment, will take his men back to their quarters in perfect health. He is an excellent officer, a good disciplinarian, and well liked by both soldiers and citizens. The captain will always find a hearty welcome in the Arcadia Valley.

Mrs. Nelson returned from Arcadia, Missouri, Sunday morning, where she had been visiting her father's family. She brought a sample of the Missouri fruit crop with her, some of which was given to J. W. Crook and can now be seen in the show case. The fruits of Missouri are surely all right, if we are to judge from the samples.—Rose Lawton (Ind.) Sand Bar.

The Democratic County Executive Committee was in session last Monday afternoon, pursuant to call of the chairman. Among those present from a distance were: J. F. Barger, of Ray; J. W. Harrell, of Harrison; J. M. Morris and Wm. Lewis of Union; and C. K. Polk of Liberty. A plan of campaign was perfected, and a vigorous assault upon the enemy's line will be begun at an early day.

The Democratic County Executive Committee having made arrangements for the formation of Bryan and Sewall Free Silver Clubs in this county, we hereby give notice that there will be a meeting at the courthouse in the City of Ironton, on Saturday, the 19th day of September, 1896, for the purpose of organizing a Bryan and Sewall Free Silver Club for Ironton Precinct.

W. R. EDGAR, Chairman.

W. M. A. FLETCHER, Secretary.

Geo. I. Marshall announces himself a candidate for Constable of Arcadia Township, and submits his claims to the voters at the November election. Mr. Marshall is a young man possessed of those qualities requisite to the making of a faithful, competent official. During his term as marshal of this city he has faithfully and justly discharged his duties, and should the people make him Constable we are sure he would not be found wanting.

The St. Louis Presbytery will meet in the Presbyterian church next Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. The opening sermon will be preached by Rev. H. C. Evans, D. D., of Kirkwood. The business of the Presbytery will be conducted with open doors. The sessions will begin at 8:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. Preaching Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Also, preaching Wednesday evening at 7:30. All are invited. The ministers of the community are especially invited.

Geo. H. DUTY, Pastor.

John Schwab, Esq., with his wife, returned last Saturday from a trip to Minneapolis, whether they had gone to spend a "soldier's" reunion. While there, Mr. S. went through some of the large flouring mills. Being in the milling business, Mr. S. was given special facilities for the examination, and he expresses himself amazed at the enormous capacity and perfection of process of these great manufactories. He says he had a most enjoyable time all through, and came back looking and feeling all the better for his outing.

Preaching at the Presbyterian church at 10:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m. next Sabbath. At Graniteville, 3 p. m. Sabbath School at 9:45 a. m. Sabbath School at Graniteville 9:30 a. m. Subject for the morning service will be "Bodily healing and faith cure." Text, Gal. 6:10. A cordial invitation is extended to all who do not attend services elsewhere to attend these services.

Geo. H. DUTY, Pastor.

The editor of this paper has received the following from H. N. Nelson, Carthage, Texas. Mr. N. is an attorney, and no doubt able to assist the parties concerned. He says: "I can be of great interest to the heirs of John Strickland, who lived in Iron County, Mo., in 1860. John Strickland died from the effects of a rattlesnake bite. His heirs have an interest in lands in this State, by virtue of certificates issued to Mary Strickland and Henry Strickland, and I would like to find them. I thought perhaps you would help them by putting a short notice of this letter in your paper; and if they will write me I will explain the matter to them in full."

"La Belle Marie," by Senora Ogarita Company, was the offering at Hays Opera House Monday evening. This was the initial performance of this company, opening a 6 nights' engagement. Senora Ogarita, the Mexican-Indian Actress, appeared in the dual role of Jean Ingleside and Marie Dubois. Her complete transformation from the simple New England Maiden to the skilled and wily adventuress was excellent. Her work is marked with a degree of nicely rarefied met with in these days of stage coarsening. We but voice the sentiment of the entire audience when we pronounce her an artist of the highest rank.—Republican, Chester, Ill.

On Saturday night, the 29th ult., a horse was stolen from the stable of A. J. Dewitt, and the same night a saddle and bridle were taken from Lopez's store in this town. Mr. Dewitt took immediate steps to recover his horse, and a few days later found him in a field in Bellevue Valley, into which field there was neither gate nor other open mode of entrance. No one could tell how the animal got in; but there he was, to the no small satisfaction of his owner, who secured him and brought him home. Last Saturday night, the saddle was returned secretly and hung on the fence enclosing the Lopez lot, proving that the theft was not committed by a passing stranger. Who is the thief? The persons interested still hope to solve the problem.

An exchange has this to say of the tramp: "Behold the tramp. He is a man of much hair and few clothes. He cometh into town, from where no man knoweth and when he departs he leaveth no word behind. He passeth his days in slumber and his nights on the break beam of a freight car, and his days in one place are few. When he approacheth a town he smelleth the beer from afar off and the handouts. He rubeth the can with alacrity, but the sight of the woodpile maketh him weary. He careth not for meat, but his thirst for beer is like unto a raging fire. He taketh to beer as an infant taketh to milk, but the sight of water maketh him sick at the stomach. One day was one of the most pleasant and enjoyable times we have experienced for many a year."

wise the place of his death. For who hath seen a dead tramp?

It had been decided by the members of the M. E. Church of Graniteville (of which Harvey Warren was a member), to give an entertainment and festival for the benefit of the widowed mother, who lost her only means of support when Harvey was killed. A committee was appointed, but after careful consideration they have decided upon another plan of action, which, it is thought, will prove more beneficial to Mrs. Mayes. A committee of two has been appointed to wait upon the good people in their homes and receive their contributions to this most worthy cause.

A thorough canvass will be made, and every one will have an opportunity to contribute. Those living out of town, farmers or others, who have it in their hearts to help in this cause and have not the money to give, but have farm produce, it will be thankfully received. Those out of town wishing to donate something like this may leave their donations at the home of either members of the committee. "He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord; and that which he hath given will he pay him again." Prov. 19:17. Committee: Edw. Koeth and E. J. Warmington.

J. A. Lovell was incarcerated in the Ironton Jail by the order of Judge Adams of the United States District Court, some months ago. Mr. Lovell had evidently been studying the money question and reached the conclusion that our money was inadequate to the demands of commerce. In a spirit of patriotism he resolved to do what he could to remedy the evil. So he formed a syndicate and began to emit ten-dollar silver certificates. While in St. Louis he inflated the circulation with several of these products of the home market. The authorities seem to have misinterpreted the patriotic and philanthropic motives of Mr. Lovell, and run him in for counterfeiting. Col. Clifton and Col. Anthony might have overlooked the matter had he manufactured money of final account to the government standard, but they were satisfied that there was enough credit money in circulation; so they trotted up their sympathies and carried the matter before Judge Adams, who proved to be entirely unappreciative.

So Mr. Lovell was given a three months' vacation in Arcadia Valley as the guest of Sheriff O'Neal. At the end of his vacation, Deputy Marshal Nall appeared on the scene with another warrant and took him before Commissioner Fox, who transferred him to Kansas City for helping the people of that section out of their financial difficulties with his home manufactured money. He was committed to the St. Louis Jail in default of five thousand dollars.

To My Friends and Patrons.

It has been circulated that I am going to leave the Valley. I shall still continue to practice here, and I thank you all for your kindness to me in the past, and shall hold myself in readiness to serve you in the future. Those desiring my services at night will find me at the American Hotel.

S. E. STRONG.

Annapolis News.

Ed. Register.—To-day W. W. Strother of Sabula and Miss Rosa Simpson of Des Arc came up from the home of the latter, and were met at this place by the reverend Wm. McKenzie of Sabula, who joined them in the holy bonds of wedlock at the Annapolis Hotel. Long life and a full share of the happiness that comes to those bound by the ties of love, are the wishes of "Cruz" to the happy young couple. After the ceremony the couple, accompanied by Mrs. D. A. Johnson and Miss Rowena Benson, were driven to Sabula, the home of the groom's mother.

Johnie Francis, the son of J. J. Francis, died Friday morning of the dread destroyer, consumption. His remains were interred on the hill yesterday, and thus ends a life in the bloom of young manhood. He leaves a father and many relatives to mourn his untimely end.

James, a little son of Monroe Slusher, is very sick, but is we are glad to say convalescent.

An ice-cream supper for the benefit of the Sunday school was given at the Iron County Hotel Tuesday evening. Every one seemed to have a good time. $3.20 was the net proceeds.

Several of our people went to Leeterville Wednesday, to hear the joint debate.

An engineer on the Iron Mountain railroad told "Cruz" a few days ago that he had already received two letters from the general office, of a political nature. "But," said he, "they can go to the—There is good reason to believe that such letters will generally have such an effect."

September 6, 1896. CRUX.

From Graniteville.

Ed. Register.—Died on Saturday night last, infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Griffin, of bowel trouble, aged three weeks. The remains of the little one were taken to Iron Mountain for burial on Sunday afternoon.

Yesterday being Labor Day, a suspension of work was the order with our granite companies, so that their employees could spend the day after their own fashion.

William Bryson and family, Frank Bolden and family, Chas. Schiffer and family, Chas. Hanson and family, Chas. Reno and family, William Hume and family, and J. D. Greason and family, observed the day in visiting the Rifle Range, and to say that they were royally treated and tendered an elegant reception by Uncle Sam's men is only stating the matter correctly; and we voice the sentiments of all, in expressing our gratitude to Sergeant Moloney, Bennett, Funk, Reese, Spencer and Arnold, for the hospitality shown us while there. We were shown over the entire Range, and had the pleasure of trying our marksmanship at the target, both with rifle and revolver; and while some of us plucked the bull's-eye, some, could hit nothing but the mountain at either side and in the rear of the huge target. One outing was one of the most pleasant and enjoyable times we have experienced for many a year.

Mrs. E. M. Smith left yesterday to spend the week in the city.

Several of our town folks observed Labor Day by going a-fishing, with fair success.

Henry Rutschilling made a flying trip through Madison, Perry and other counties last week, looking out a location for a boot and shoe store, but Henry says every town that he visited was chock full of such establishments, and has concluded to stop where he is for the winter.

We will probably organize a Bryan and Sewall club in the near future, and prepare ourselves for battle in the silver cause—16 to 1, and no compromise.

September 8, 1896. CAR.

From all accounts Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a Godsend to the afflicted. There is no advertisement about this; we feel just like saying it.—The Democrat, Carrollton, Ky. For sale by all dealers.

Marble Creek.

Ed. Register.—As we have not been represented in your valuable paper for some time we will send you a few happenings of the Creek.

We have had several nice showers of rain since our last writing, and quite a wind storm the 4th of this month. However, not much damage was done. Some outbuildings and fences blew down, and a large amount of fruit was blown from the trees.

The farmers are very busy cutting corn.

School opened at the Logtown school-house last Monday morning.

Miss Needham, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Brady, the past six weeks, returned to her home in Chicago last week.

The Misses Cora and Daisy Good returned to their home in St. Louis last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuhn received word Tuesday, that their little son John, who has been attending school in St. Louis, is very sick; but, it is hoped, not so seriously as reported.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Good, September 8, 1896, a girl. All parties are doing well, and the happy father's face is wreathed in smiles. The new arrival is a bright living child, and they are all boys but seven.

The Baptist people expect to begin a revival meeting at the Reaves Church House the third Sunday of this month. Albert Jones and little son, and sister, Miss Lou, visited the home of Frank Johnson in Madison county one day last week.

Patrick Twoomey and family left for their new home in California last Friday.

A number of people of Marble Creek attended services at the Cove Church last Sunday, and witnessed the baptizing.

John Rebstiner, who has been in Arkansas the past twelve months, returned to his home last Tuesday.

Apple parings, with now and then a "social hop" to liven up the time, are the topic of the day and the pleasures of the evening along the Creek.

MATFLOWER.

Bellevue Briefs.

Ed. Register.—Farmers are busy cutting corn and plowing for wheat. Except the late planting, corn is maturing well. The sorghum crop is very light this year. Last season nearly every one had a patch, and the price was so low it scarcely paid for making. Wheat is being marketed, prices ranging from 43 to 49 cts. Bellevue farmers will have no "money to burn" this year.

Mrs. Kerlagan spent most of last week with her mother, who is very ill. Rev. J. W. Campbell, of Farmington, arrived at the Baptist church on the fifth Sunday in August.

Revival meetings are in progress at the Methodist church. Mr. Coker is assisted by Mr. Pasco, who is an earnest worker.

Rev. Harry Whitehead and family are visiting at Dr. Farrar's. Mr. W. is just recovering from malarial fever.

Mrs. Coker, who has been sick at Mr. Hale's, has returned to her home in Reynolds county.

While in Bellevue John Logan rented their farm to Jesse W. Hale.

John W. Turner and family have gone to Des Arc to live, and Ben Sloan will move to the house lately occupied by them. Will Reeves having sold Mr. Sloan's farm.

Sam Whaley will go to live near Belgrade.

Miss Mary Russell has leased her farm for three years to Emmett Imboden, and will go to Chicago about the first of October.

Will McKim and wife were visiting Mr. Thompson, and were accompanied home by Mr. T. and family, who spent a week with relatives near Sabula.

T. O. Hood has moved to Graniteville.

Roy Palmer went to Potosi Saturday to visit his sister.

Miss N. Brown spent some days at Mr. Cart's last week.

The St. Louis people who have been summering in Bellevue have returned home, and were all delighted with their stay.

Jesse Hawkins commenced school at Thorn Grove Monday. Philip Hartman is teaching the Middleton school. W. D. Bay has about 65 pupils enrolled at Bellevue.

John W. Harrell and James A. Reayburn were in St. Louis recently.

Mrs. H. Daussman and Miss Grace Loder, of Bellevue, are at the American Hotel, in Ironton.

A. J. Palmer went to Belgrade Saturday.

Miss Dora Lucas visited Miss Minnie Coker recently.

The Sunday schools of Bellevue had a picnic on the 6th Saturday in August, which was attended by nearly all the children in the Valley, and the older people were there to see that they had a good time. There was enough and to spare of good things to eat, with lemonade and ice cream in abundance.

Miss Virdie Bell is home again from Glen Allen.

W. J. Russell and Arthur Nall drove out to Bellevue Sunday afternoon.

Will Ray spent last Sunday in Ironton.

Mrs. R. G. Coleman and son have returned to St. Louis county.

A goodly number of young people of Graniteville were at the Methodist church Thursday evening.

Miss Annie Pyle and Miss Letha Moyer have each a new Jesse French organ.

Mrs. W. T. Gay, Mrs. Haley and daughter, with Mrs. E. J. Thomas, spent a day with Mrs. Will Bell not long since.

Miss Lizzie Woolford of Bismarck is visiting Miss Emma Wacey. Will Edmonds of St. Charles was with his aunt, Mrs. J. T. Cox, last week, and Mrs. Cox is now enjoying a visit from her brothers, Judge Joseph Edmonds, of St. Charles county, and Colonel James Edmonds of Washington, D. C. Colonel Edmonds is accompanied by his wife.

There was frost in the Valley Sunday night.

BEDEVILLED.

Sent it to His Mother in Germany.

Mr. Jacob Esbensen, who is in the employ of the Chicago Lumber Co., at Des Moines, Iowa, says: "I have just sent some medicine back to my mother in the old country, that I know from personal use to be the best medicine in the world for rheumatism, having used it in my family for several years. It is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It always does the work." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.

Goodland.

Being no politician we are not prepared to discuss the silver question, but we are heartily glad that Bryan made that memorable trip to the East, else we might have long remained in doubt as to the intelligence and hospitality of the Eastern people; as it is, now we know that they may safely be placed on an equality with the people who occupy the West. Thank God for that.

I. N. Eaton and family will soon remove to Crawford county.

Rufus Tindell and family, of Piedmont, spent a week among old acquaintances at Goodland.

Miss Edith Westernman spent a fortnight with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Adams.

Miss Bella Brooks left to-day to begin a five months' term of school near Centerville.

Born—August 21, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams, a daughter. To Mr. and Mrs. Oesch, September 1, a son.

C. W. H. Eaton and family spent last Sunday with Grandma Love.

Mrs. John Goggin, who has been seriously ill, is convalescent.

The death of Mrs. Terry leaves a vacant chair in the household, an empty pew in the church, and a feeling of sadness among the large circle of her acquaintances. Her friends were many, as was testified by the large concourse gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to the departed.

Rev. Brooks preached a touching discourse, "Therefore be ye also ready." Married, September 8, 1896, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Alfred Hawk of Clones to Miss Mary E. Nelson of Goodland; Rev. Brooks officiating.

The latest mania of the Goodland women, is having their feather beds and pillows renovated by hot air process. Mr. Clarkson expects to remain two weeks longer on that account.

Wesley Anderson and sons are making molasses.

Mr. Brooks lately bought a sorghum mill and is prepared to do good work for the public.

Our school still continues to please pupils, parents, and those who are neither.

TIMOTHY HAY.

Vindication.

Ed. Register.—I, a few days ago, spoke of resigning my position as teacher in the Burgundy school, and as I was getting along so quietly and giving such general satisfaction it caused considerable speculation.

Among other things it has been said that one of my pupils was not easily controlled and before I would resort to corporal punishment I would quit the school. By others it has been reported that the pupil so critically questioned my work in arithmetic that I could not stand the annoyance and would quit on that account.

Now, I will say, neither of these reports has the least foundation in fact. The pupil referred to has not even been scolded during the two months which I have taught. I find the deportment of each of my pupils as good as one could reasonably expect. I yet, have my first case of corporal punishment reported.

As to my explanations, they are always taken without question. The children seem to think they have a teacher who knows his business and do not question any of the work. Except Theory and Practice, I have classes in all the branches required by law to be taught.

In regard to what has been said about myself, will any, there is no charge hanging over me so far as I know, but if there are any, I am not only willing, but anxious to meet them in a legal form. I have nothing to fear or dread, in the least from, any source. I successfully met charges face to face every day during the last two weeks of June and am just as well prepared to meet some more if they must come.

Now, as to why I spoke of quitting, the reason is best known to myself, and shall so remain. I never spoke of resigning except with the consent of the board. I said I would not quit without their consent and failing to obtain that I shall finish the school.

If anyone has more reports to circulate in regard to this matter, I hope they will be against myself, and not against the school. So long as my pupils obey me, and treat me with the respect that they have always done, I shall be found ready to assist and defend them on all such occasions.

Now, Mr. Editor, hoping you will kindly publish this, I am,

Yours Respectfully,

SAM THOMPSON.

John Russell, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Adams, died August 18, 1896, aged two weeks.

Before thy heart could learn
In wordings words to stray;
Before thy feet could tread
The dark and downward way;
Ere sin could wound thy breast,
Or sorrow wake the tear;
Rise to thy home of rest
